Pascal Property

St. Michaels

private

The Pascal Property (known historically as the Marshall house) is a largely intact fourth quarter of the nineteenth century cross-gabled frame house with a center hall, single-pile plan. Most recently, the hip roofed front porch has been enclosed as display windows for a storefront. The interior survives with most of its modest Victorian woodwork including a mahogany and oak stair. The rear in-fill has a characteristic second floor porch that is found throughout St. Michaels.

Owned for most of the twentieth century by the Marshall family, the house dates to the fourth quarter of the nineteenth century, and it was probably erected during the ownership of Thomas Blades.

Pascal Property description

The Pascal Property is located on the east side of Talbot Street at the north end of the center business district in St. Michaels, Talbot County, Maryland. The two-story frame house, now used as a clothing store, faces west while the principal gable is oriented on a north/south axis.

Supported by a brick foundation, the c. 1880 two-story, three-bay frame house is sheathed with asbestos shingles and covered by a medium pitched asphalt shingle roof. The center hall house is extended to the rear by a two-story service wing.

The west (main) elevation is a symmetrical three-bay facade that is covered on the first floor by a hip roof porch, now enclosed as display windows. The two display windows flank the center glazed door. Framing the door are three-light sidelights and a five-light transom. The second floor is evenly divided by three four over four sash windows that no longer have shutters. Centered on the roof is a cross-gable pierced by a Gothic-arched louvered vent.

The north and south gable ends are essentially the same with single four over four sash lighting each floor. The eaves are slightly extended with short returns at the cornice level.

The east (rear) elevation is fully covered by the two-story ell service wing along with a two-story section that fills the southeast corner of the ell. The second floor of the in-fill section consists of an open porch with sawn balusters.

The interior retains a large portion of its period woodwork. A heavily turned newel post and turned oak balusters support an oval profile mahogany handrail. The step ends have a scrolled decoration. Plain surrounds frame shallow four-panel

To : Frances Jackson

Notes: Lease. Begins at SW corner of Captain Auld's store-lot; run 94 feet with Talbot Street to the corner of the store of Rigby Valliant. Run with Valliant's boundary to lot of Leonidas Dodson.

The property is part of "Stopper" (or "Joseph's Lot"). "Jospeh's Lot" (as much as had not been leased) descended from Thomas Harrison to Joseph Harrison of Thomas. Stephen Harrison, Joseph Harrison's son ~~Stephen~~ inherited all of his father's real estate (Will, 7/388, 1817). William Henry Harrison was Stephen's son. Specific mention of transfer of the property concerned here has not been found and may not be as direct as indicated here.

The property from this lot to the corner of Cherry Street apparently came under Samuel Harrison's purchase from Joseph in 1802 (29/354) but the Pascal lot was not included; at least no involvement of Samuel Harrison with this lot has been found so far. If Samuel Harrison was not concerned with this property, it would locate the beginning of 29/354 "at Joseph Harrison's pales on the main road" as the northern boundary of the Pascal property.

Beginning for the same at a Point on the easterly side of Talbot Street, said Point being at the southwesterly corner of the herein described land and the northwesterly corner of the land of the Commissioners of St. Michaels (Liber 341, Folio 200), and from said Place of Beginning running (1) by and with the easterly side of said Talbot Street, North 00 degrees 35 minutes 33 seconds East 79.69 feet to an Iron Rod and the land of Raymond F. Notes: Lease. Begins at SW corner of Captain Auld's store-lot; run 94 feet with Talbot Street to the corner of the store of Rigby Valliant. Run with Valliant's boundary to lot of Leonidas Dodson.

The property is part of "Stopper" (or "Joseph's Lot"). "Jospeh's Lot" (as much as had not been leased) descended from Thomas Harrison to Joseph Harrison of Thomas. Stephen Harrison, Joseph Harrison's son Stephen inherited all of his father's real estate (Will, 7/388, 1817). William Henry Harrison was Stephen's son. Specific mention of transfer of the property concerned here has not been found and may not be as direct as indicated here.

The property from this lot to the corner of Cherry Street apparently came under Samuel Harrison's purchase from Joseph in 1802 (29/354) but the Pascal lot was not included; at least no involvement of Samuel Harrison with this lot has been found so far. If Samuel Harrison was not concerned with this property, it would locate the beginning of 29/354 "at Joseph Harrison's pales on the main road" as the northern boundary of the Pascal property.
